

I International competition of music and arts

Canadian Stars Diploma

Shirley Wu (Canada, Montreal)
- pianist, teacher, researcher, entrepreneur, journalist, artistic performance consultant. Guest lecturer at McGill University Schulich School of Music, artistic performance consultant. M.Sc. at Royal College of Music.

Shirley Wu

Raechele Lovell (Canada, Kitchener) - a Choreographer, Performing Artist, Dance Instructor and lifelong Artist based in Southwestern Ontario.

Raechele Lovell

Julia Konopleva (France, Paris) - teacher of arts and crafts and fine arts at the Izbushka school, author of individual courses in classical drawing, educational art programs for children and adults, author of illustrator of teaching aids, graduate of the University of Paris with a degree in Graphic Design.

Julia Konopleva

Laureate I grade

in age category 13-15 y.o.
nomination Instrumental creativity

awarded

Spoon ensemble "Ozornye ritmy"

teacher Zolotareva Ekaterina Anatolevna

Dr. Jamie Hillman (Canada Toronto) - Canadian and American musician, active as a conductor, singer, pianist, music educator, and composer. A director of Choral Studies and an Associate Professor of Music. Performed throughout Canada and the United States, and in France, India, and Indonesia. A led All-State or honor choirs in Connecticut, Georgia, Maryland, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Vermont, Virginia, and Ontario. Laureate of the Leslie Bell Prize for Choral Conducting from the Ontario Arts Council, and is the curator of the Jamie Hillman Choral Series published by Santa Barbara Publications.

Jamie Hillman

Dmitriy Devdariani (London UK) - actor, playwright, poet, teacher, screenwriter, artist. Theatre director at various venues in London and Edinburgh, have staged many modern and classical plays, laureate of the "Stars of the Albion" international performing arts competition.

Devdariani

Sanartis s.r.o.
Makovského 1337/2
163 00 Praha 6 - Řeč
IČ 241 87 691